3. We have been asked to provide the Canadian Embassy with the following:
- a. An identification of the elements within the Administration's Clean Air Act position which will be of concern to Canada;
 - b. Specific comment in respect of each such provision detailing the grounds for Canadian concern, including where relevant an assessment of the extent to which Administration proposals will
 - i. Result in increased transboundary pollutant transport and acid deposition;
 - ii. Facilitate or impede action to address transboundary (interstate and international) air pollutant transport and acid deposition;
 - iii. Be inconsistent with the Memorandum of Intent and the bilateral negotiating process now underway;
 - c. An identification, where appropriate, of measures alternative to Administration proposals of concern, which would be both politically realistic, and better framed to address the concerns of Canada and the U.S. states affected by long-range transport and acid deposition; and
 - d. Any other comment or suggestions we would consider relevant.

We have been engaged at an hourly rate for these services.
